PORT ST. LUCIE MANUFACTURER EXPANDS

The Economic Development Council of St. Lucie County (EDC) and the City of Port St. Lucie support and assist local manufacturer Ross Mixing, Inc. with expansion needs, adding 11,400 square feet of manufacturing space. The expansion will allow the growing manufacturer to stay in Port St. Lucie and add up to 12 new jobs to their existing 25 employee base.

Ross Mixing, located at 1249 SE Industrial Boulevard, Port St. Lucie, is a manufacturer and distributor of mixing, blending, drying and dispersion equipment, has a world-class reputation for innovative engineering, superb construction and fast delivery. Ross equipment is manufactured on five continents and in the U.S. operates five plants and a vigorous R & D program. All plants are fully equipped with advanced engineering and manufacturing tools. In industries including chemical, coatings, pharmaceuticals, cosmetics, foods, adhesives, plastics, and many more, Ross is uniquely equipped to meet all the special needs of every customer, anywhere in the world.
